ALASKAN FACTION
(Nottingham)

An outstanding indie-pop outfit. These guys have had the whole room busting shapes with their undeniably catchy tunes, reminiscent of Two Door Cinema Club and Bombay Bicycle Club's dancier side.

JAMES &
THE RABBIT HOLE
(Imperial)

A wonderful new-school approach to original surfy-rocky- blues. Be prepared to get taken away by a truly accomplished sound, with lyrics akin to country storytelling.

RUBIN & THE GROOVY TUESDAYS
(UCL)

Fronted by the wonderful Rubin, who dips in and out of his loop station with effortless grace, this band have a fantastic mix under a loose and elegant folk umbrella.

T*U*A:
(Portsmouth)

A 3-piece hip-hop act taking the South by storm. Reminiscent of early Lupe Fiasco and Luke Christopher, the group are spread across Portsmouth and London and have already amassed an impressive following.
