

Physics Computing Committee Meeting

19th February 2020

Blackett 539

Agenda

12:30	Welcome and what do we want to achieve from these meetings (perhaps revisit at the end of the meeting)	D. Colling, all
12:35	Round table introductions who is who, what they do (or the people they represent) do and what is important to them	All
12:55	News and plans from ICT	Colin and Will
13:05	Sharing data and backing up data (the box service, Research Data Store and OneDrive for Business – also how to ensure user engagement)	All
13:20	ICT monitoring of users e.g. MyAnalytics	All
13:25	Desktop replacement organisation in the post Harry Vine era	All
13:30	Poster printing in the post in the post Neal Powell era	All
13:35	Software stack for the teaching machines – including what OSes do we want to support (including home directories etc) etc	All
13:45	Computing on the physics department web pages – how do we update and what do we want there.	All
13:50	Recap of what we want from these meetings and how often we should meet etc	All
13:55	AoB
14:00	Close	